Important Notice to Society Activity Participants:

Risk is inherent in all outdoor activities. Please ensure that you understand the risks and are prepared to accept them. As a participant, you are responsible for your own safety and equipment at all times. Be sure that your experience, ability, fitness level and equipment are adequate for the activity. Inform the leaders of any medical conditions that they should be aware of, for example, diabetes, asthma or bee sting reaction.

Carry the following on all trips: Name, address, phone number, birth date; name, address and phone number of contact person; name of doctor, details about severe allergies and special medications.

Trip co-ordinators are not professional guides. They are club members who have volunteered their time for your enjoyment. Do not bring dogs on trips. Stay with the group. Wait for other group members frequently and at all route junctions. ENJOY THE ACTIVITIES!

Special Note: Activities are sometimes photographed. Please inform the trip leader if you do not wish to be photographed or videoed for news or public relations purposes.
